

MEDIA RELEASE

SPELLING AND WORD BASICS WORKSHOPS Open to Teens and Adults

SANTA BARBARA, CA – June 25, 2013

Do you want to build confidence in your spelling and reading skills? The Santa Barbara Public Library System is offering additional sessions of its popular, free workshops on Spelling and Word Basics starting in July. This entertaining weekly series is designed to help identify and solve spelling and reading issues in a supportive and comfortable environment.

Daytime and evening classes will be offered starting the second week of July. The daytime Spelling Basics classes, which meet on Tuesdays from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. starting July 9, are open to those entering grade 7 and up, including adults. The evening Spelling Basics workshops, which meet on Wednesdays from 5:00 p.m. to 6:45 p.m. starting July 10, are reserved for adults only. The classes will continue until the end of August, and will meet in the Townley Room at the Santa Barbara Public Library, 40 E. Anapamu St.

Preregistration is encouraged, but walk-ins are welcome. If you are interested in Spelling Basics, call 805-564-5619 or contact literacy@sbplibrary.org for more information. This FREE community program is presented by the Santa Barbara Public Library System's Adult Literacy Program.
